FOREWORD

Welcome to the latest issue of the Journal of Languages and Translation (JLT). In this collection, we present a diverse range of research papers that explore the intricate interplay between linguistics, literature, and translation studies.

I extend my heartfelt thanks to the authors for their dedicated work and to the Editorial Board for their commitment to maintaining the journal's standards. I encourage our readers to explore the contents of this issue and engage with the thought-provoking research presented herein.

I would like to take this opportunity to urge researchers and academics to submit their papers to our journal. We enthusiastically welcome contributions from all areas of linguistics, literature, and translation studies. Our commitment lies in publishing research that deepens our understanding of this vital field. We eagerly look forward to your submissions.

Thank you for your support and readership.

Sincerely,

Marwa Muhammad Wagdy El Shereie
